

Regarding the border armed conflict between Cambodia and Thailand

Youth of the Centrist Democrat International (YCDI)

- 1 We, the Youth of the Centrist Democrat International (YCDI), upholding the democratic values of the IDC-CDI and the principles and purposes of the Charter of the United Nations and the ASEAN Charter, are closely following developments in the Cambodian-Thai border conflict. We welcome the peace proposal of President Donald J. Trump and the ceasefire agreement reached on 28 July 2025 at the Special Meeting chaired by Prime Minister Anwar Ibrahim of Malaysia in Putrajaya, Malaysia, as well as the Extraordinary General Border Committee (GBC) Meeting held on 7 August 2025 in Kuala Lumpur, Malaysia.
- 2 We support the pivotal role of ASEAN and the international community, including major global and regional powers, in building the crucial steps needed to end armed hostilities, prevent further escalation, destruction and loss of life, and restore peace and stability in the region.
- 3 We commend Cambodia's constructive role in fully implementing the ceasefire agreement and in engaging in good-faith, peaceful dialogue, including through the meetings of the GBC, the Regional Border Committee and the Joint Border Committee between Cambodia and Thailand. Cambodia remains steadfast in upholding international law, ASEAN Centrality, the spirit of good neighbourliness and its role as a responsible member of the United Nations.
- 4 We deplore the devastation inflicted on civilian populations, particularly children, youth, women and the elderly living within and along the affected border areas. We therefore call for immediate humanitarian interventions to ensure their inalienable right to education, food, shelter, medical care and protection from further deprivation and risk, including the danger of unexploded ordnance (UXO) and cluster munitions, and to guarantee them opportunities to live in safety and dignity, with growth, development and a sustainable future.

- 5 We urge both Cambodia and Thailand to take all necessary measures to ensure that all military and civilian personnel strictly adhere to the ceasefire, uphold their obligations under international law, exercise maximum restraint and pursue the peaceful resolution of disputes in accordance with the UN Charter and the ASEAN Charter. We urge the immediate establishment of the ASEAN Observer Team (AOT), comprising representatives of ASEAN member states, as a vital mechanism to monitor compliance with the ceasefire, build confidence between the parties and facilitate the safe and dignified return of displaced civilians.
- 6 The YCDI reaffirms its commitment to defending human rights, safeguarding cultural heritage and supporting the peaceful resolution of disputes, while promoting the vision of “building a world community” of peace, cooperation, friendship, harmony and shared prosperity in full respect for international law.
