

PROJECT · SECOND SEMESTER 2025

Venezuela in Democracy Project

Strengthening the political leadership and political rights of young Venezuelans in exile.

ABOUT THE PROJECT

About Venezuela in Democracy

An initiative led by the Youth of the Centrist Democrat International (YCDI) and the Mariano Ospina Pérez Foundation, in partnership with youth political organizations from around the world. Through a participatory approach and international advocacy, the programme seeks to amplify the stories of young Venezuelan exiles, promote their voices in the global debate and develop concrete proposals that uphold and reclaim their political rights.

The project was born to strengthen political leadership and the defence of political rights among young Venezuelan exiles, recognizing not only the value of their experiences but also their capacity to build a democratic future.

KEY OBJECTIVES

Five goals for young Venezuelans in exile

- 01 Strengthen the political leadership of young Venezuelan exiles, promoting their participation in the international debate on democracy and human rights.
- 02 Defend their political rights in exile, by advocating for mechanisms of protection and international recognition.
- 03 Build narratives for a democratic Venezuela, through spaces for dialogue and reflection on their experiences and proposals.
- 04 Raise awareness of the political and social situation of exiles, by organizing an international forum that brings together key political and social actors.
- 05 Promote international resolutions that encourage respect for and protection of the political rights of young Venezuelans in exile.

PROGRAMME • FOUR MONTHS

Programme

PHASE 1 • 2 MONTHS

Working groups and narrative building

Gather the stories and perspectives of young Venezuelan political exiles, identifying their experiences, challenges and proposals for a democratic Venezuela.

PHASE 2 • 1 MONTH

International Forum on the Situation of Venezuelan Political Exiles

Raise awareness of the political and social situation of young Venezuelans in exile and foster debate on their rights and prospects for returning under a democratic system.

PHASE 3 • 1 MONTH

Presentation of international resolutions

Advocate for the recognition and defence of the political rights of young exiles through the promotion of international resolutions.

EDITORIAL PLATFORMS

Strengthening editorial platforms

The Venezuela in Democracy Project aims to consolidate international youth leadership through the creation of editorial platforms with a regional perspective and an approach independent from political parties.

To achieve this, the Mariano Ospina Pérez Foundation will strengthen youth opinion platforms in both physical and digital formats, while promoting the engagement of young leaders in the political, economic, business and religious spheres.

ORGANIZERS

The Youth of the Centrist Democrat International (YCDI) is the youth organization of the Centrist Democrat International (IDC-CDI), a global organization uniting political parties that uphold democratic values and principles. The YCDI engages young people in political discourse, leadership development and the promotion of centrist democratic ideals, empowering the next generation of political leaders and fostering international cooperation among youth committed to democracy and good governance.

The Mariano Ospina Pérez Foundation is a non-profit organization based in Bogotá, Colombia, dedicated to promoting a responsible, sustainable and prosperous society. Inspired by the legacy of former Colombian President Mariano Ospina Pérez, it leads initiatives in rural development, education, leadership and historical memory.

FACILITATORS

The Centrist Democrat International (IDC-CDI), founded in 1961, is a global non-governmental organization that unites political parties committed to promoting centrist democratic values and principles. It serves as a platform for 113 member parties from 83 countries to collaborate on policy development and coordinate international activities that uphold democratic ideals.

PARTNER ORGANIZATIONS

Space reserved for the youth political organizations taking part in the programme.

Democracy is not inherited, it is defended.

