

APRIL 2027 · REPUBLIC OF SAN MARINO

YCDI Masterclass 2027

Three days of leadership training for young political leaders of the IDC-CDI network and allied organizations.

AT A GLANCE

The 2027 YCDI Masterclass at a glance

Political leadership is not only built in institutions: it is shaped through dialogue, exchange and hands-on learning. The 2027 YCDI Masterclass in San Marino gives young leaders the opportunity to develop the skills, networks and vision needed to navigate an increasingly complex political landscape.

By bringing together emerging voices from across the IDC-CDI network and allied organizations, it fosters critical thinking, strategic decision-making and effective policy design, with experienced mentors and in San Marino, a historic symbol of democratic resilience.

An investment in the next generation of political leaders committed to good governance and impactful policymaking.

KEY OBJECTIVES

Key objectives of the 2027 Masterclass

- 01 Develop leadership skills. Equip young political leaders with the tools and strategies needed for effective decision-making, governance and public engagement.
- 02 Strengthen political and policy expertise. In-depth training on political strategy, policy innovation and governance to craft and implement impactful policies.
- 03 Foster international cooperation. A space for young leaders from different countries to collaborate, exchange ideas and build long-term relationships within the IDC-CDI network and beyond.
- 04 Enhance strategic communication. Training in modern political communication, digital engagement and the role of artificial intelligence in shaping public discourse.
- 05 Promote democratic values and good governance. Reinforce democracy, transparency and ethical leadership as core pillars of political action.
- 06 Bridge generations of leadership. Mentorship between experienced political figures and emerging leaders to ensure knowledge transfer and continuity.
- 07 Encourage innovation in political movements. New approaches to political organization, campaign management and civic engagement.
- 08 Empower young leaders for real-world impact. Participants leave with actionable insights and concrete skills for their political careers and communities.

SCHEDULE • DAY 1

Foundations of leadership and political values

Objective. Explore the fundamental values that unite young political leaders and their role in addressing global challenges.

OPENING SESSION

The power of values in global politics

WORKSHOP

Solidarity, subsidiarity and freedom in modern governance

ROUNDTABLE DISCUSSION

Lessons from global leaders

INTERACTIVE LAB

Adapting political values across cultures

EVENING

Official opening dinner with remarks from PDCS leadership

VENUE

La Rocca Guaita, San Marino

SCHEDULE • DAY 2

Building winning political organizations

Objective. Equip participants with the skills to build strong political structures, strategic plans and campaigns.

TRAINING MODULE

Structuring a successful political organization

SIMULATION

Developing a winning electoral strategy

INTERACTIVE PANEL

Strengthening youth participation in politics

CASE STUDY

Winning elections: global best practices

EVENING

Networking dinner

VENUE

La Rocca Guaita, San Marino

SCHEDULE · DAY 3

Mastering communication in the digital era

Objective. Enhance political communication skills, leveraging social media and artificial intelligence.

TRAINING MODULE

Political communication in the digital age

HANDS-ON WORKSHOP

Building a successful social media campaign

PANEL DISCUSSION

Tackling disinformation and AI in politics

CLOSING

Participant reflections and closing session

CEREMONY

Certification ceremony

RESULTS

Expected outcomes

- 01 Enhanced leadership skills. Practical knowledge and tools to strengthen leadership in political and organizational contexts.
- 02 Stronger international networks. Lasting connections with peers, mentors and political figures across countries.
- 03 Improved political strategy and communication. Skills in strategic planning, policy innovation and digital communication.
- 04 Youth empowerment in decision-making. A stronger role for young leaders within parties and institutions.
- 05 Practical application of knowledge. Concrete strategies and best practices to apply in political careers and organizations.
- 06 Increased visibility for the YCDI and partners. The YCDI, GDC San Marino and their networks as key platforms for training young political leaders.
- 07 Commitment to future collaboration. A starting point for continued cooperation and new initiatives among participants and partners.

ARCHIVE

YCDI Youth Panel on the Peace Charter: For People and the Planet (Cambodia 2024)

ORGANIZERS

The Youth of the Centrist Democrat International (YCDI) is the youth organization of the Centrist Democrat International (IDC-CDI), a global organization uniting political parties that uphold democratic values and principles. The YCDI engages young people in political discourse, leadership development and the promotion of centrist democratic ideals, empowering the next generation of political leaders and fostering international cooperation among youth committed to democracy and good governance.

The GDC di San Marino is the youth wing of the Partito Democratico Cristiano Sammarinese (PDCCS), dedicated to engaging young people in political discourse and promoting the values of Christian democracy through leadership development, political education and active participation in national and international arenas.

SPONSOR

The Centrist Democrat International (IDC-CDI), founded in 1961, is a global non-governmental organization that unites political parties committed to promoting centrist democratic values and principles. It serves as a platform for 113 member parties from 83 countries to collaborate on policy development and coordinate international activities that uphold democratic ideals.

From the heart of San Marino, shaping the leaders of tomorrow.

